Also presented for approval were the minutes from the May 24th Special Meeting of the Board of Trustees. B. Baxter made a motion to approve the minutes for the April 28th Board of Trustees meeting. M. Woodruff seconded. Discussion, B. Green wanted the minutes changed to reflect her no vote for the resolution to incorporate last year's residual funds into this year's budget. B. Baxter Amended the Motion to approve the minutes as corrected. M. Woodruff seconded. Motion passed; S. Watkins dissented. S. Watkins made a motion to approve the minutes from the May 12, 2021, Trustees Work Session. B. Baxter seconded. Motion Passed Unanimously. T. District Office Manager's Report - A port-a-potty was set on fire with minimum damage. No additional cost to the District. The sump pump in the park burned out and is to be replaced. Both bathroom projects are complete awaiting final inspection by the county. The bulletin boards will be put back up since the painting is complete. The squeaking deck boards at the office entrance have been fixed. The office has been contacted by people asking what to do about suspicious activity taking place around the District and the neighborhood. The office has referred them to Manatee County resources and has spoken with County Commissioner Servia about these concerns.

Committee Reports

Personnel and Salaries - T. Zimmerly reported that the committee is continuing to work on the safety manual.

Recreation Committee - B. Baxter reported that Game Night is a club of its own and not a Board driven activity. Brian Murphy and Chad Saunders are actively pursuing getting the volleyball equipment arranged for and set up before the kid's pool party Tuesday June 08 from 1pm until 4pm. The district's maintenance personnel will set the volleyball equipment up on Wednesdays prior to leaving for the day and Brian Murphy will be seeing that the equipment is taken down and ready for the next week. Marina was high so we are seeking further proposals. Total quote for the mangroves including the invasives that they trimmed in 2019 is $3800.00. B. Susdorf made a motion to approve the $3800.00 for the maintenance trimming. T. Zimmerly seconded. Discussion confirmed that we are using the same company as Trailer Estates for mangrove trimming. Motion Passed Unanimously. Spectrum hospitality services was contacted about having Wi-Fi coverage throughout the District's park area. We were referred to Volt Communication Solutions. They would do a survey to determine what will be necessary for us to secure the property with Wi-Fi. Woodruff made a motion to approve the revised Marina Work Area Contract (1005 WAC). S. Watkins seconded. Discussion, approval will validate the contract. Comment, the requirement for the crane operator to provide a license may be inappropriate as Florida has no such license. The proposed contract was changed to read business license and the Motion was amended to approve the contract with that change. Motion Passed Unanimously. The proposed Attorney Contact Policy for District Personnel was presented. M. Woodruff made a Motion to Accept the Attorney Contact Policy (1012 P). S. Watkins seconded. Motion Passed Unanimously.

D. Rawlinson recognized Simone Peterson from Manatee County who wanted to speak to the meeting. Simone mentioned the neighborhood enhancement grant is good up to $1000.00 reimbursement for doing projects within the community. If you need specific information, contact her. There is an application process for these grants that take about a month to process.

Level one is for projects costing $1000.00 or less and is not a fund matching grant. Level two is for projects costing more than $1000.00 and requires funds matching.

Additional Items - S. Watkins proposed removal of the unapproved signs. Discussion ensued. This issue will go to committee for further action. B. Greenberg added that she would like the beach signs to be looked at. She also requested that she be given a sign to repaint for the Pre-school Sprinkle Garden.

Resident Comment Period

· Mary Lou Smith asked how it was that she got a survey when it was still under development? Sharon Denson asked how other residents were to receive the survey. Mary Lou Smith felt that the survey requested half of the information it should have. T. Zimmerly advised that this survey is an ongoing process. M. Smith asked how the surveys are to be tabulated. It was suggested that the returned surveys go to the committee for evaluation.

· B. Greenberg stated that she wishes to change her vote from a yes to a no on the cancellation of the flood insurance based on the information that she now has.

· G. Cruz announced coming meetings next week to be Policy and Procedures and Marina Committee, June 01 @ 7:00 p.m. The Recreation Committee, June 01 @ 8:00 p.m. The House and Grounds Committee June 02 @ 7:00 p.m.

BE PREPARED

Hurricane Season Began on June 1 – Are You Prepared?

NOAA – The National Oceanic and atmospheric agency – is predicting another active season of hurricanes. To insure its residents are prepared, Manatee County held seven virtual town halls. Each one of these meetings included a video conference with a district commissioner and Emergency Management Chief Steve Litschauer and Public Safety Director Jacob Saur.

You can watch the District 4 Town Hall Meeting that was recorded on June 7th at this link:
<https://youtu.be/67Ndu89iCl4>

Here are some things you can do ahead of time because being prepared for bad weather is the most important thing.

- Sign up for Alert Manatee to receive call, text or email alerts during an emergency on the MyManatee website. If you don't use a computer call Manatee County Emergency Management at (941) 749-3500 ext. 1673,
- Make a plan with family members
- Build an emergency kit that includes enough food & water for the household for three to seven days. Also make sure you have medications and other special needs. Don't try to do this all at once; pick up a few things every time you shop. For instance – On one trip pick up 1 or 2 gallons of water and a big jar of a favorite food.
- Secure your important papers.
- Know your evacuation levels and find an emergency shelter. Not all shelters are equipped to handle people with special needs or pets.
- Sign up for Special Needs Registry if you or someone in your household will need assistance if you have to evacuate.

Jam Sessions

The Jam Session meets on the 1st and 3rd Monday from 7pm to 9pm in the Recreation Hall. All are welcome to join or just come and be a part of the peanut gallery. We have 10 to 12 members at all times.

Manatee Matters with Commissioner Misty Servia

Animal Shelters and the Future of Manatee County

Animal welfare is not what it used to be - thankfully - and this fresh thinking provides a transition in local government from catching and killing homeless animals to educating the public and helping citizens to help themselves.

State law requires local governments to handle unwanted animals and enforce vaccinations, but shelters are upping their game. This shift from housing animals packed in cages and viewing them as a public nuisance to designing shelters as friendly and vibrant community centers with a range of pet services results in places with less disease where the community is invited and engaged, instead of dirty places that are hidden from sight.

You can check out these trends firsthand by visiting our Animal Services facility - built as a kill-shelter in the 1960's - and "Cat Town", built in 2019. If you've been to both, you know what a joy it is to walk into Cat Town - while the other feels like a dark prison. And for the citizens whose main focus is on the money needed to build and operate shelters - this shift in philosophy is a winner all day long. Can you guess why? You got it - more volunteers stepping up to help manage the workload.

The Board of County Commissioners is in the heart of budget season, and there are commissioners who question the need for a planned shelter in East County since Bishop plans to gift the county their brand-new state-of-the-art facility. While this is truly amazing and is being provided by the Bishop Estate of long-time animal advocate Mary Parker, it's important to remember that this gift is largely possible because of the County's move in 2011 to become a "no-kill" community. Bishop's from Day-1 was to care for surrendered animals and find them loving homes without euthanasia. So, when Bishop decided to hand the reins of animal welfare to the county, it was done so with the expectation that we are ready to carry their mission forward. Manatee County has not yet seen the Bishop contract to accept this gift, but I suspect it may have some caveats related to their philosophy.

The new Bishop facility is designed with low-cost spay neuter services at the forefront, and space for family-friendly activities such as dog training classes and children engagement. It is proven that a community approach to animal care results in boosted adoption numbers and fewer surrenders. But, I have to wonder if the Bishop facility alone can serve a community that is growing by 10,000 new residents a year! Oh, and we need to pay attention to where the growth is occurring too. We all know it is not in West Bradenton, but is pushing north and east as fast as the stucco can be slapped on new houses.

As a planner, my training is to assess what we need today and look ahead 50-years to plan for the future - and then make decisions that serve both over time. The Bishop facility will replace the rat infested, crumbling Palmetto shelter and will be filled with animals the day we accept it. What facilities will we need in our northern and eastern areas in the coming years? I don't know, but an exercise in strategic planning will bring the answer into focus.

There is a national trend to end shelter killing in the USA by 2025. I've heard the statistic that for every 10,000 residents, we will have 250 animals touch our shelters. So, I have asked our staff to bring the Board data to support what we need today and in the future based on growth projections. Our tremendous animal services team understands this business model inside and out, and the way I see it, is as a simple mathematical equation of need over time, and a plan to execute it. This is the same way that we plan for utilities, roads, libraries, and schools. And as I said last week, I rely on facts and data, which doesn't allow me to lean too far one way or another on emotional crutches, but to align our infrastructure needs with the county's growth projections while listening to the needs of our people, businesses, and organizations.

The Board's role is to spend taxpayer's money with an eye on every penny, to protect and enhance our quality of life. And yes, I deeply care about animals. If we do what we need to do with methodical expertise, we will be prepared to serve the animals and families by properly planning for adequate shelter space.
